

Beautiful jet setters light up Ballet Austin for My Yacht Club's glittering F1 disco blowout

BY SHELLEY NEUMAN

11.17.13 | 5:33 pm

Performer Sarah Marsh. Photo by Jon Shapley

SHARE

TWEET

EMAIL

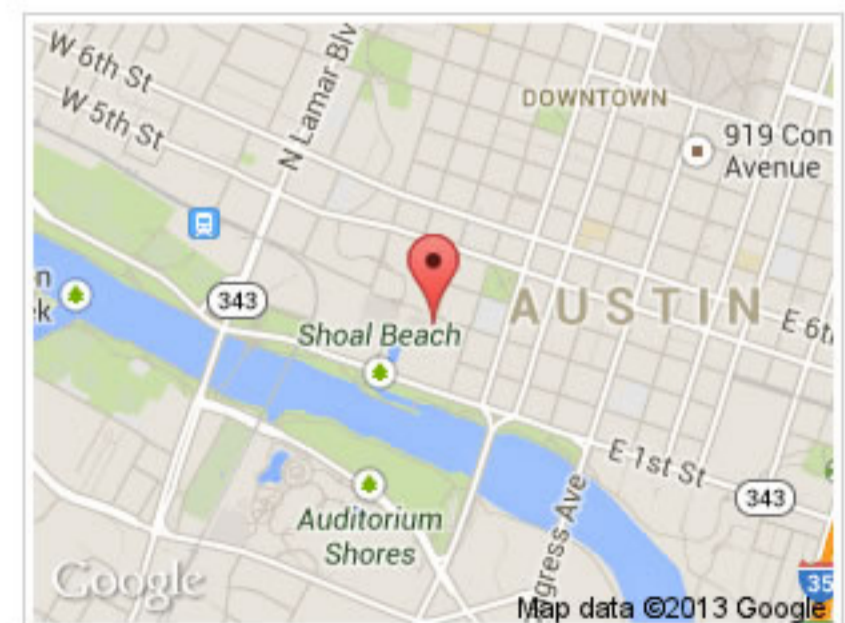

PIN

Dancing on tables, expensive champagne and a possible Rick Yune sighting were all part of the My Yacht Club's Saturday night blowout at Ballet Austin. For the second year in a row, the party was a big draw for the beautiful ones, among them Ami Galvan, Elyzabeth Strong, Nicole McMillan, Amanda Bogner, Sierra Durland, Joy Pecorano and Jordan Cobb, looking for a fabulous way to celebrate the weekend's Formula One Grand Prix at Circuit of the Americas racetrack near Austin.

Many of the celebrants, including Ashley and Lance Loeffler, Nick and Tina Raia, Tara and Sean Muller and Natalie and Brett Agee, stopped off on the red carpet to pose for photographers before proceeding inside the studio, which had been transformed into an exclusive disco populated by blazing hot DJs, models, drivers and general VIPs both local and international.

If all that dazzle wasn't enough, aerialists served drinks with the greatest of ease, and every multithousand-dollar bottle of champagne ordered was presented by a bevy of gold-bedecked beauties waving sparklers. It was the crowning touch on a wild night that got F1 fans revved up for the day of the big race.

Ballet Austin

Get Directions - 501 West 3rd Street Austin