

10th Anniversary My Yacht Monaco Charity Reception Welcomes HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco & Distinguished Guests Aboard

My Yacht™ Monaco celebrated its 10th Anniversary at this year's 73rd Monaco Grand Prix with an intimate charity reception aboard M/Y Lady in Blue benefitting several My Yacht charitable partners, including the Prince Albert II of Monaco Foundation.

The evening welcomed HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco aboard along with other distinguished guests including former Prime Minister of Pakistan Shaukat Aziz, Honorary Consul to Lithuania John Prunskis M.D., Monaco Chief of Police Serge Denis, easyGroup founder Sir Stelios Haji-Iannou, economist Nouriel Roubini, media magnate Michael Lambert, and two-time Olympic alpine skier Otto Tschudi.

The evening marked the beginning of a weekend of luxury hospitality and F1 race viewing aboard the newly refitted and extended, 40m tri-deck superyacht moored on Quay Kennedy. High-performance X-Tenders and Van Dutch tenders sped guests to and from the yacht daily, while on board European Winery of the Year Chateau d'Esclans poured a selection of fine wines including the 95-point Garrus. In addition, guest favorite Gold Emotion kept the bubbles flowing with its 24k gold-flecked Luxor Brut and Brut Rosé, and beer drinkers enjoyed Blonde of Saint-Tropez.

A professional crew & staff ensured the highest level of service for an international selection of guests, with sumptuous foods, including caviar, and open bar throughout.

Each guest received custom, limited edition My Yacht Monaco gifts, as well as memories of an extraordinary experience. ✈
