MyYacht is an entirely unique, lavishly mind-blowing experience for yacht aficionados with a pension for high-class luxury. Owned by three-time Bobsleigh Olympian Nicholas Frankl, the forty million dollar yacht will be moored on Canary Wharf for an eighteen day stretch during the Olympics. The mooring will invite only the most exclusive guests on board to mingle with choice Olympic athletes, while enjoying 5-star hospitality with gourmet food and an open bar serving premium wine, champagne and top shelf liquor.

Another fringe benefit of the MyYacht experience is that Olympic guests can beat the transportation congestion of the games' traffic, as guests can enjoy a private tender service on the River Thames, with various pick-up locations throughout London. Guests can also watch the games from the yacht's hi-definition LCD TVs, and enjoy an exclusive pre-opening ceremony gala with the HSH Prince Albert II and Princess Charlene of Monaco, who are both patrons of the World Olympians Association and former Olympians.
