As you'd expect, the principality pulls out all the stops when this iconic race is happening. An invite to The Yacht Club De Monaco (located on the harborside AND in front of Monaco's famous tunnel where movie stars mix with drivers) is one of the hottest tickets in town.

The Fairmont Hairpin. FAIRMONT MONTE CARLO

Hotels like the Fairmont Monte Carlo (overlooking the most famous hairpin turn in Formula 1) and others are booked solid well in advance so guests can be as close as possible to the action. And watching from temporary grandstands that get erected on the course is another way to see the race. But for many, the best way to experience the Monaco Grand Prix will always be from the deck of a yacht (like the following that are available for charter from Burgess Yachts) that are moored just behind the temporary safety fence next to the course.

There are other ways to line up the ultimate Monaco Grand Prix party weekend as well. Nicholas Frankl, the founder and CEO of My Yacht Group has been creating multi-day race viewing experiences from yachts moored on a prime trackside berths on the Quay des Etats-Unis straightaway for 14 years.

My Yacht and official charity partner Prince Albert II of Monaco Foundation. host one the hottest parties of the weekend where guests can mix with HSH Prince Albert II, olympians, astronauts, business leaders, and other celebrities on the track side yacht. And since can't get any closer to the action during race, the only thing you'll have to do is decide all weekend is what type of champagne you'd like to have.
