Miami Memories + F1

My Yacht® Group returned to Miami during the International Boat Show to host an intimate reception aboard 50m Oceanfast M/Y THUNDER, represented by IYC & the largest yacht for sale at the show.

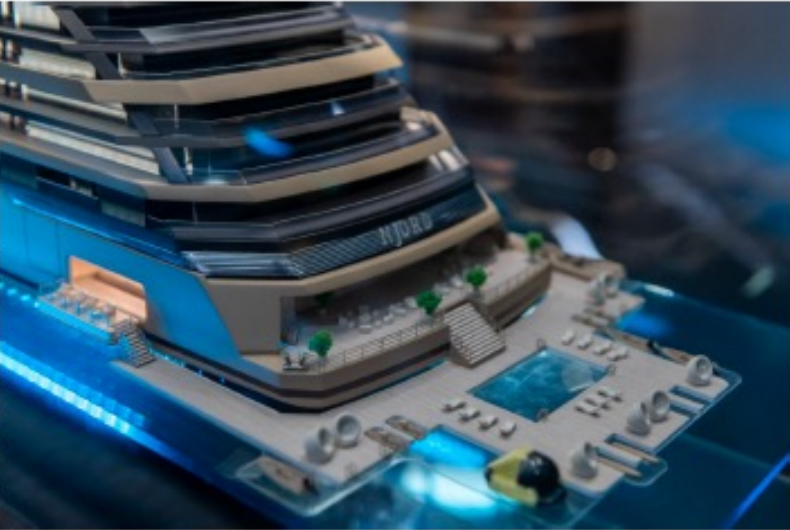

With just over 1 month until he rockets to space for a 5th time, Commander Michael Lopez-Alegría spoke to the room of qualified guests about his upcoming 10-day Axiom Space mission to the ISS, with 3 private astronauts aboard Ax-1, a world first.

Making its USA debut, a scale model of 949ft M/Y Njord, plus a string trio, greeted guests as they stepped aboard, a perfect way to realize the scope of the project, that's receiving strong global interest for its 117 residential units, & is set to debut in Monaco, 2025.

And ZERO-G continued its partnership, with some guests only recently back to Earth following a thrilling morning of weightlessness aboard G-Force One! We are delighted to continue our exclusive 20% discount off flights now through May 2022. Contact us to learn more.

Monaco F1 - May 27-29

The Season 4 "Drive to Survive" trailer just dropped & if you think viewing the action on a screen is exciting, try watching the teams race past 50-feet away from aboard our superyacht in Monaco!

The demand for our trackside experience is incredible & we have our last spaces remaining. Don't miss out! This year's Monaco GP weekend promises to be something special.
